Three Stills Stolen From Court House

Paducah, Ky., Apr. 8.—Thieves invaded the basement of the court house here Friday night and stole three stills which had been confiscated. Entrance was gained by breaking out a window. The stills were captured recently on house boats in the vicinity of Paducah.

Investigating Disappearance Of Tabor Script Bill

Frankfort, Ky., Apr. 8.—Attaches of the Kentucky General Assembly, members of both houses and lobbyists appeared today before the grand jury which is investigating the disappearance of the Tabor script bill on the closing day of the last session. The bill would compel payment at face value of script issued by coal and other Kentucky companies.

Magna Charter Object of Great Interest To Tourists

London, April 8.—After 700 years, Magna Charter remains the most popular British manuscript. Last year 14,000 persons went to the British Museum to see it. Americans invariably ask to view the famous charter which insures Englishmen their rights, according to the museum custodians, but other foreigners take more interest in the Papal Bull, which is displayed next to it.

Heavy green blinds are kept over the precious parchment to exclude the full light rays and thus prevent deterioration but are lifted to show the charter to admiring pilgrims.

Most persons are disappointed at not seeing King John's signature, according to an official at the museum, but they seem satisfied when they read the script that it was "given by our hand in the meadow which is called Ronimede between Windlesor and Stanes, on the 15th day of June, in the 17th year of our reign (1215).

Heirs In Letcher Win Suit For 1,000 Acres

Whitesburg, Ky., April 7.—The long contested coal and timber land litigation between the Ison heirs and the Kentucky Union Land Company in which 1,000 acres of big leatherwood property was involved came to a close at Hazard today when a jury returned a verdict in favor of the heirs. The original deeds of the property were made more than a century ago and the contest has been fought for years.

SUGGESTIONS TO HELP FIRE DEPT.

Written recommendations for the improvement of the fire department work in Richmond, as made by Capt. Stiltz, were submitted by Mayor O'Neil to the Council Thursday night. Capt. Stiltz it will be recalled, made a several days' inspection here on behalf of the Kentucky Actuarial Bureau. His communication reads as follows:

Your Honor—I have looked over your town and I find it is a bigger place than a stranger would realize. I find you have a great many buildings that are three and four stories high. Your fire department members are of a class of hardworking men, willing to learn. I find your triple combination pumper a good piece, but in proportion to the size of your town your one piece is not enough.

I suggest that you get interested and take up the matter of getting a hook and ladder, as it is badly needed. It should be supplied with the tools and ladders needed in fighting fire; other things that are lacking and will also be needed are: A life net used to catch people trapped in upper floors, schools, etc.; a smoke mask will enable your firemen to enter smoky buildings; a shut off nozzle to save water damage; a good rope is very important in fire department work; water proof covers, to save valuable property from water; screw jack in case of floors falling; chisel to cut barred windows, etc.; sledge hammer to burst concrete floors and cellar gratings; hose hoist, enables men to get lines to upper floors and roofs; cellar nozzle in fighting cellar fires.

Furthermore I suggest you organize a fire prevention bureau; improve your alarm system as to districts; have your police cooperate with the fire department; give your fire department right of way; do not allow parking around hydrants; provide your firemen with badges; let them be inspectors; have fire drills weekly—they will perform better at fires.

Your honor, I beg of you to give this matter study. These suggestions I make are the views of my years of experience.

CAPT. STILTZ

'SHINER KILLED IN RAID IN ADAIR

Perhaps the first killing of a moonshiner this year is reported from Adair county where the sheriff and deputies were fired on while seizing a still. They replied and a fusillade of shots resulted, one man being killed. The Adair County News says of the affair in its current issue:

Last Thursday morning, Sheriff George Coffey, Deputy Sheriff S. F. Coffey, and Frank Winfrey, and Deputy Jailor Elmer Miller, left here for the Pickett Chapel neighborhood, having been notified that a still was in operation in that locality.

When they reached the place where the still was supposed to be located, they dismounted and hitched their horses, and commenced a careful survey of the premises. In a short time they discovered the still and three men standing about it, and one man was off by himself, on a hill. He was believed to be the lookout. The officers said to the three men, "boys, we have you covered, give up and you shall not be hurt."

Just at that time a shot came, it is believed from the man on the hill, and another shot from a different direction. The officers believing that they were in imminent danger, opened fire and perhaps twenty-five shots were fired. When the smoke had cleared up, it was discovered that one man, said to be named Van Arsdale, a son-in-law of Crit Pickett, was found dead, Teddy Morrison shot in the leg and it is supposed that it was broken, and it is also reported that a boy named Pickett was shot and badly wounded. After cutting the still and worm to pieces, and emptying 900 gallons of beer, the officers started on their return to Columbia, and upon reaching here surrendered to County Judge C. G. Jeffries.

The House may expel Congress man Blanton, of Texas, for charging the members with carrying free whisky flasks and poker on the floor of the House yesterday as a common liar.

Establishment of a privately owned merchant marine through government aid would necessitate a treasury outlay of $52,000,000 annually, but would save $50,000,000 a year which the shipping board is now losing in operating vessels, says Chairman Lasker, of the board.

Wagon Bed Became Boat; Tree Limb Saved Driver

Danville, Ky., Apr. 7.—Shelby Goins had a narrow escape from being drowned in attempting to ford Hanging Fork creek. Midway of the stream the current floated the bed from his wagon and he was carried away in it. Passing under a sycamore tree several hundred yards down, he was able to swing to a limb and reach the shore, the bed continuing with the flood. He was able to recover his mules.
